

homework

Room 9, Week # 28

Name: _____

vocabulary

fever:	great excitement about something route:	a path for getting from one place to another toddlers:	very small children who have just learned to walk oxen:	adult male cattle penned:	kept inside; closed in narrow:	uncomfortably close; almost unsuccessful fever:	very high body temperature horizon:	the line where the earth and the sky meet delay:	wait until later to do something rations:	supplies, usually food, that are limited hulk:	body of old wrecked ships; something large and clumsy standed:	trapped or stuck in a difficult situation startled:	surprised alarmed or shocked stern:	the rear part of a ship or boat tremble:	to shake or shiver
skipper:	captain
executing:	carrying out or doing barren:	having little plant or animal life sledge:	a sled to carry loads across snow and ice harnessed:	wearing straps attached to a vehicle as a sled or plow current:	the path or flow of moving water, such as a river or sea scarce:	not enough
lunged:	moved forward suddenly stalking:	moving secretly while tracking prey sapped:	weakened
floes:	large sheets of floating ice grueling:	very tiring
crevasse:	deep hole or crack
savage:	wild

Spelling

ught/ought
caught
thought
bought
laugh
though
enough
fought
daughter
taught
brought ought
cough
sought
granddaughter
teeth
was

