

homework

Room 9, Week # 29

Name: _____

vocabulary

furiously:	violently
dehydration:	sickness caused by not having enough water quench:	to satisfy
exhausting:	very tiring
jagged:	ragged, full of parts sticking up and out pitched:	put up
deserted:	empty: not lived in, or having few or no people permanent:	meant to last for a long time hut:	small simple house or shelter cramped:	crowded
wick:	the cord that burn on a candle or a lamp frigate birds:	a type of sea bird rancid:	having nasty smell or taste tiller:	part used to steer a boat impact:	crash
bailed:	got water out of a boat by filling containers and emptying
hull:	the body or frame of a ship or boat capsizing:	turning bottom side up dimly:	not seen easily or clearly

Spelling

VCCV
Monday
sudden
until forget
happen
follow
dollar
window
hello
market
pretty
order
after funny
stubborn
expect

