

Sick Day

The big day will be here soon! Jill's team will play in the big game. Jill will pitch for her team.

On the day before the big game, Jill sits up in her bed. Jill does not feel well. Jill is sick! Jill still wants to play. What will she do?

Jill's mom comes in. She sits on Jill's bed.

“This is too bad, Jill. I know you want to win this game. I think you must rest if you feel ill.”

The next day, Jill wakes up. She grins. She is not sick! She can play! Jill kisses her mom. She fits her mitt in her bag. It is time for the big game.

HOORAY! Jill's team wins!
