

Big Trucks!

Buck cannot wait. His class is going on a trip! Buck runs to school. Buck rushes to the bus. Miss Chun is at the bus. Buck and the rest of the class get on the bus.

The bus takes them to see how a dump truck works. The dump truck has lots of mud on it. The dump truck dumps the mud. THUD! THUMP! THUD! THUMP!

Here are lots of other trucks!

“The trucks are helping to make a new school for the kids in our city,” said a man named Chuck.

Miss Chun said, “Chuck can show us the trucks up-close.”

At last, Buck can get up in the big truck!

“I want to drive a big truck when I grow up!” said Buck.
