

Swish, Swish, Swish!

Trish Shane got her mask and fins from the beach shack. Then she shut the door of the beach shack. She could hear the waves splash on the shore. Mr. Shane was waiting to teach Trish how to swim with the fins and mask.

Mr. Shane showed Trish how to put on her fins and mask. Then Mr. Shane showed Trish how to swish her fins up and down. “Try not to splash,” said Mr. Shane.

Soon Trish could swish, swish, swish her fins.

“Watch me swim, Dad!” said Trish. Trish showed Mr. Shane how she could swish her fins.

“Trish, you swim like a fish!” said Mr. Shane.

At last Mr. Shane and Trish went for a swim in the shallow water. They went to look at the fish. Trish followed Mr. Shane. Trish and Mr. Shane saw lots of fish and shells. “There is a starfish!” said Trish.
