Comma Rules

Use commas:

1. when there's a series of three or more things
   a. never put a comma after and

2. When the name of the sentence repeats put it between commas

3. After the number of the day in the date
   a. If the sentence continues after the year put a comma

4. When a sentence starts with if put a comma after the first idea

5. After the introduction of a sentence

6. After yes, no, or sure

7. Between city and state in an address
   a. If the address is written in on single line, put a coma between the name of the street and the city.