

The children were absolutely delighted with the cows and were soon helping them set up their lounge chairs and unfold their umbrellas.

What does the word delighted mean in this sentence?

- A disgusted
- B enlightened
- C pleased
- D delated

"I see you have a nice omelet in the pan on the stove. How do you afford eggs?" "Oh," said the farmer, "my horse lays an egg each morning-but only one.

In this sentence, you can tell that a omelet is something

- A to eat.
- B to chase.
- C to laugh at.
- D to help out.

Whenever she gets a good bargain on tomatoes or bananas or something she buys, she puts by the savings and they go into the jar.

- A good deal
- B soiled
- C starving
- D produce

Just before the sunrise, the president of the Punxsutawney Ground Hog Club taps on the stump and awakens Phil. He is irritated. He has been awakened twice this day, and he sees no carrots.

What does the underlined word mean?

- A sick
- B sleepy
- C annoyed
- D blinded by light

This morning the men responded slowly to orders, scowling and slamming down their tools and lines.

What does the underlined word mean?

- A smiling
- B angry
- C amused
- D content

The mouse scurried fast to his hole as soon as the cat appeared.

What does the underlined word mean?

- Ran
- Spilled
- Eat
- Scared
- scurried