

Read the passage and answer the question below:

My grandma has been growing a beautiful garden in her back yard. It is huge. It has many sections. She has put lots of flowers, fruit trees, waterfalls and lots of places for birds to nest. When you enter the garden you can forget about the noise and craziness of life outside.

1. The garden can be described as a “peaceful place” because

- A there’s no peace in it.
- B it is hard to tell how much peace there is.
- C there’s lots of peace in it.
- D it has little peace.

2. Read this sentence:

As we went up the building outside glass elevator we could see everything getting smaller and smaller until BING! We were at the top.

In the sentence above, the author uses the word “smaller” to show that the elevator is:

- A increasing its height.
- B struggling to go down.
- C shrinking things.
- D blocking the way up.

3. Which of the following suffixes can be added at the end of the word swim to make a new word that means “someone who swims”?

- A -er
- B -ed
- C -ing
- D -est

4. Read this sentence.

An elephant is the loud _____ animal in the zoo.

Which suffix should be added to the word loud to make this sentence true?

- A -ful
- B -est
- C -ing
- D -er

5. Read this sentence.

As the city of Los Angeles crowded more every year, lots of people headed eastward outside of the city to find new homes.

In this sentence, the suffix “-ward” tells us that

- A they were leaving to a their old home.
- B they were entering someone else’s home.
- C their living place had been crowded.
- D they were going east to find a new home.