

AUNT FOX AND THE FRIED FISH

Uncle Fox: Look how many fish! I think I'll try to catch some.

Uncle Fox: Aunt Fox, Aunt Fox, look at what I caught

Aunt Fox: Wow! That's the largest fish I've ever seen.

Uncle Fox: It would make a nice dinner for us.

Aunt Fox: Uncle Tiger that is too much fish for us two. Uncle Fox

Uncle Fox: You are right Aunt Fox lets invite Uncle Tiger for lunch.

Aunt Fox: Great idea, why don't you go and call him.

Uncle Fox: I'll bring him while you fry the fish.

Uncle Fox: Uncle Tiger, would you like to lunch with us?

Uncle Tiger: Sure I would, I'm starving.

Uncle Fox: I went to the creek and caught three fish.

Uncle Tiger: Well, thank you for thinking of me.

Uncle Fox: Aunt Fox did you fry the fish?

Aunt Fox: Of course I did, I put them by the fire so they wouldn't get cold.

Aunt Fox: The fish were old and stiff, sharpen the knives so that we can eat it easily.

Aunt Fox: Uncle Tiger, Uncle Fox has gone crazy he wants to eat your ears. that's why he invited you for lunch. Go away quickly.

Aunt Fox: Uncle Fox, Uncle Fox, Uncle Tiger has stolen our fish. Catch him.

Uncle Fox: Uncle Tiger, Uncle Tiger, please come back. Let me have at least one please.
